Working towards expected standard for Year 5 using stops appropriate Autumn Spring Summer Read with growing confidence and fluency. Image: Configuration of the Standard Stan	Year 5 Reading TAFs
Read aload beginning to use intonation to show understanding. Image: Control of the state	Working towards expected standard for Year 5 using stage appropriate	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Read some of the Yeon 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences	Read with growing confidence and fluency.
between spelling and sound.	Read aloud beginning to use intonation to show understanding.
Begin to apply knowledge of root words, perfixes and suffixes to both read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words. Use dictionaries to check the meaning of unfamiliar words that have been read.	Read some of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences aloud and to understand the meaning of infamiliar words.	between spelling and sound.
Use dictionaries to check the meaning of unfamiliar words that have been read. Retrieve information from books that are structured in different ways. Identify basic themes and conventions in poetry. Make inferences about a character's actions and feelings. Make basic predictions abour what might happen from details stated. Increase their familiarity with a wide range of books and genre. Working at expected standard for Year S using age appropriate texts Autumn Spring Summer Read anay of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read age-appropriate texts with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intonation that shows understanding. Use known purcutation correctly to aid meaning when reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of the words. Retrieve basic information from texts. Summarise more than one paragraph. Identify themes and conventions in fiction and poetry. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic information from fexts. Summarise more than one paragraph. Identify housed, and understanding of what they have read, drawing basic information from fexts and aufficts the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Read more challenging abooks with confidence and fluency. Read and so understanding the musual correspondences between spelling and sound. Autumn Spring Summer Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Apply howwledge of a geneter range of row words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading adoud and to understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle information from texts. Apply thowwledge of a geneter range of row twords, prefixes and suffixes to both reading adoud and to understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle information and controlled pace to show greater Understanding. A	Begin to apply knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both read read.	aloud and to understand the meaning of new words.
Retrieve information from books that are structured in different ways. Identify basic themes and conventions in potry. Identify basic themes and conventions and feelings. Make inferences about a character's actions and feelings. Make basic predictions about what might happen from details stated. Increase their familiarity with a wide range of books and genre. Working at expected standard for Years 5 using age appropriate texts Autumn Spring Read age-appropriate texts with confidence and fluency. Read age-appropriate texts with confidence and fluency. Read age-appropriate texts with confidence and suffixes to both reading aloud. Work out the meaning of more context. Apply knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Summaries more than one pargraph. Identify themes and conventions in fiction and poetry. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic informacter's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict what might happen from details which are stated and implied. Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Spring Summer Greater depth at Year 5 Autumn Spring Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater undeerstanding of what they have read, drawing basic information from Identify basic themes and conventions in poetry.
Make inferences about a character's actions and feelings.
Make basic predictions about what might happen from details stated. Increase their familiarity with a wide range of books and genes. Autumn Spring Summer Read many of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read age-appropriate texts with confidence and fluency. Read age-appropriate texts and affect and age and to understanding of words. Retrieve basic information from texts. Read age appropriate texts and affect and age and to understanding of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Read age appropriate texts and affect the reader. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify how and phoneses that interest and affect the reader. Identify how and phoneses that interest and affect the reader. Identify how and phoneses that interest and affect the reader. Identify how and phoneses that int Increase their familiarity with a wide range of books and gence. Autumn Spring Summer Working at expected standard for Year 5 using age appropriate texts Autumn Spring Summer Read many of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences Image: Spring Summer Read aload with intonation that shows understanding. Image: Spring Image: Spring Summer Read aload with intonation that shows understanding. Image: Spring Image: Spring Spring Summer Read aload with intonation that shows understanding. Image: Spring Image: Spring Image: Spring Sp
Working at expected standard for Year 5 using age appropriate texts Autumn Spring Summer Read many of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences
Read many of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences		Autumn	Spring	Summer between spelling and sound. Read age-appropriate texts with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intronation that shows understanding. Use known punctuation correctly to aid meaning when reading aloud. Work out the meaning of words from the context. Apply knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve basic information from texts. Summarise more than one paragraph. Identify themes and conventions in fiction and poetry. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict what might happen from details which are stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Greater depth at Yean 5 Summer Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Apply knowledge of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve subic information from texts. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding of what they have read, drawing more subile information from			oping
Read age-appropriate texts with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intronation that shows understanding. Use known punctuation correctly to aid meaning when reading aloud. Work out the meaning of more to the context. Apply knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve basic information from texts. Summarise more than one paragraph. Identify themes and conventions in fiction and poetry. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict what might happen from details which are stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinon. Greater depth at Year 5 Sourties and suffixes to baby greater understanding. Distinguish badween statements of fact and opinon. Read most of the Year 5/6 w
Read aloud with intonation that shows understanding.
Use known punctuation correctly to aid meaning when reading aloud. Work out the meaning of words from the context. Apply knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve basic information from texts. Summarise more than one paragraph. Lidentify themes and conventions in fiction and poetry. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict what might happen from details which are stated and implied. Lidentify themes and conventions in a diffect the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Greater depth at Year 5 Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read most challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intronation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Apply knowledge of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding of mew words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Lidentify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and influence a reader.
Work out the meaning of words from the context. Apply knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve basic information from texts. Summarise more than one paragraph. Identify themes and conventions in fiction and poetry. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict what might happen from details which are stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Autumn Spring Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read most of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Read allenging books with confidence and fluency. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read allenging aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Explain and discuss their understanding the weaking more subflikes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subflik i Apply knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud Image: constraint of the maning of new words. Retrieve basic information from texts. Image: constraint of the maning of new words. Summarise more than one paragraph. Image: constraint of the maning of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from Image: constraint of the maning. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Image: constraint of the maning. Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader. Image: constraint of the maning. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Spring Greater depth at Year 5 Autumn Spring Summer Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Apply knowledge of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Image: constraint of constraints in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have rea and to understanding the meaning of new words.
Summarise more than one paragraph. Identify themes and conventions in fiction and poetry. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict what might happen from details which are stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify how language, structure and affect the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Optimizer (Control optimizer) Identify how language. Read most of the Year 5 Autumn Spring Summer Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Apply knowledge of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle information from texts. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Predict a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use langu	and to understanding the meaning of new words.
Identify themes and conventions in fiction and poetry. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict what might happen from details which are stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Greater depth at Year 5 Autumn Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read amore challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read and with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Apply knowledge of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre.
Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Image: Comparison of the co basic inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and option. Autumn Spring Greater depth at Year 5 Autumn Spring Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences Identify words and option. Identify how language is a structure and presentation correspondences between spelling and sound. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Identify the interval is a structure and presentation go f new words. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader. Identify the eader.
Predict what might happen from details which are stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Greater depth at Year 5 Autumn Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences Summer Between spelling and sound. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Autumn Apply knowledge of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader.
Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader. Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Autumn Spring Greater depth at Year 5 Autumn Spring Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling books with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Apply knowledge of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader.
Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader. Identify words and phrases that interest and opinion. Greater depth at Year 5 Autumn Spring Summer Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater understanding. Identify the model of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader. Identify the valuate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader.
Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion. Autumn Spring Summer Greater depth at Year 5 Autumn Spring Summer Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Second Greater depth at Year 5AutumnSpringSummerRead most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound.Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. </td <td>Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader.</td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td>	Identify words and phrases that interest and affect the reader.
Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences Image: Constraint of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound. Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater Image: Constraint of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the meaning of new words. Read aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Image: Constraint of the Year 5/6 words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Image: Constraint of the Year 5/6 words. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Image: Constraint of the Year 5/6 word words. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Image: Constraint of the Year 5/6 word words. Predict a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and implied. Image: Constraint of the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader. Image: Constraint of the text and the words.	Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion.
between spelling and sound.	Greater depth at Year 5	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency. Image: Control Contenter Control Control Control Content Contro	Read most of the Year 5/6 word list, noting the unusual correspondences
Read aloud with intonation and controlled pace to show greater	between spelling and sound.
understanding.	Read more challenging books with confidence and fluency.
Apply knowledge of a greater range of root words, prefixes and suffixes to both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Image: Constraint of the meaning of new words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Image: Constraint of the meaning of new words. Image: Constraint of the meaning of new words. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Image: Constraint of the meaning of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Image: Constraint of the meaning to the text as a which might happen from details stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Image: Constraint of the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader. Image: Constraint of the text as a whole.
both reading aloud and to understanding the meaning of new words. Retrieve subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Predict a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader.
Retrieve subtle information from texts. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Identify house a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Identify to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader.
Identify themes and conventions in a range of genre. Image: conventions in a range of genre. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Image: convention of the second secon Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, drawing more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Image: Comparison of the second more subtle inferences about character's feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions - justifying these with evidence. Image: state in the sta Predict a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and implied. Implied. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Implied. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader. Implied.
Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning to the text as a whole. Begin to evaluate how authors use language to interest, affect and influence a reader. Identify how language	Predict a range of scenarios which might happen from details stated and the text as a whole.
influence a reader.	the text as a whole.
Make comparisons within and across books.
	Make comparisons within and across books.				